ACTS AND LETTERS OF THE APOSTLES

Farrar, Straus and Giroux Richmond Lattimore, one of the most distinguished living translators of Greek, has in this book completed his rendering of the New Testament in fresh and accurate English for the modern reader. The publication of his translation of The Four Gospels and the Revelation in 1979 was hailed by the New York Times Book Review as "an achievement that places us more deeply in Lattimore's debt than any other in a long diligent career." The Acts of the Apostles, which he calls "the earliest consecutive story of early Christianity that we have," and the three groups of Letters of the Apostles--those of Saint Paul, the letter to the Hebrews, and the General Letters--are now made available to complete the New Testament in his translation. His aim again has been to provide a simple, literal rendering in which the syntax and order of the Greek dictate the character of the English style. Lattimore, as an authority on the Greek language in which these texts have come down to us, and as a writer without pretensions as a biblical scholar, allows the words of the apostles and earliest disciples to speak for themselves with accuracy and fidelity to the Greek. The book's design follows the attractive and readable format of The Four Gospels, and avoids the usual apparatus of biblical texts.

Packer presents a powerful truth: prayer is a natural activity between the Heavenly Father and his children. GOD DOES HIS BEST WORK WITH EMPTY

Tyndale Momentum It's amazing how heavy the weight of emptiness can feel, how much room it can take up in our souls, how much pain can be caused by something that isn't even there. But while we may see the emptiness of our lives as our greatest problem, that's not how God sees it. When God looks into the empty places of our lives, He sees His greatest opportunity. God does His best work in the emptiness of our . . . Insatiable craving for things that don't satisfy Relational disappointments and loneliness Frustrated search for purpose and meaning Relentless desire for comfort and security Ongoing struggle to live with loss and unfulfilled dreams Join Nancy Guthrie in discovering why emptiness has never been, and never will be, a problem to God. As Nancy pulls back the curtain on God's work to fill up emptiness as revealed throughout the Bible, you'll experience page after page of grace and hope that your emptiness can and will be filled. You'll begin to see that God really does do His best work with empty--as he fills it with Himself.

EVANGELICAL FEMINISM?

A NEW PATH TO LIBERALISM?

Crossway By critically examining the writings of egalitarians, Grudem shows that, while egalitarian leaders claim to be subject to Scripture in their thinking, what is increasingly evident in their actual scholarship and practice is an effective rejection of the authority of Scripture. Egalitarianism is heading toward an Adam who is neither male nor female, a Jesus whose manhood is not important, and a God who is both Father and Mother, and then maybe only Mother. The common denominator in all of this is a persistent undermining of the authority of Scripture in our lives. Grudem's conclusion is that we must choose either evangelical feminism or biblical truth. We can't have it both ways!

THE TRUTH WILL SET YOU FREE

ELEVEN "MYTHS" SATAN USES TO DECEIVE MAN

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc. Are You a "Whosoever?" Whosoevers are people destined to live forever in a place beyond their wildest expectations. Whosoevers are becoming more difficult to identify today due their being mocked and persecuted by Hollywood, the mainstream media, and most of our schools and universities. However, the rewards for achieving "whosoever status" are well worth looking into! How can you become a "whosoever"? Just believe! (John 3:16) "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whosoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life." Whosoevers are believers in God, the Creator of the universe, and Jesus Christ His one and only Son who exchanged His righteous for our sinfulness. Jesus paid the price for all our sins, past, present, and future. The game of life is extremely complicated and doomed to failure if you don't know all the rules. The Bible is God's use and care manual and is His means used to communicate with us today. In the past, God communicated through various prophets. Now, we have God's Word, the Bible, to help us understand and know what pleases our creator. God says that it is impossible to please Him without faith and that faith comes from hearing His Word, the Bible. Today, many people know that God hates "idol worship." However, many peoples don't realize that anything that you put in front of God, for example, family, friends, possessions, or power, is idol worship. In God's eyes, hating anyone is equivalent to murder and lust for anyone, but your spouse is adultery. That is why we need to study the Bible to help us understand God's character! Everyone sins and falls short of God's standard. (Romans 3:10""12) "There is no one righteous, not even one; there is no one who understands there is no one who seeks God. All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one." This is why everyone needs a Savior! (Proverbs 14:12) "There is a way that seems right to man but in the end it leads to death." At the opposite end of the believing spectrum are the "never God" people. "Never God" people not only deny God their Creator and Jesus's sacrifice on the cross but also mock believers. The Apostle John called those who deny Jesus "antichrists." Unbelievers or antichrists will also live forever, but in an extremely hot environment. Instead of joy, there will be weeping and a gnashing of teeth. The fire in hell will burn eternally, but the occupants will never die. (John 8:31""32) "To the Jews who has believed him, Jesus said, 'If you hold to my teachings, you are my disciples. Then you will know the truth and the truth will set you free.'"

THE GLASS CASTLE

A MEMOIR

Simon and Schuster Journalist Walls grew up with parents whose ideals and stubborn nonconformity were their curse and their salvation. Rex and Rose Mary and their four children lived like nomads, moving among Southwest desert towns, camping in the mountains. Rex was a charismatic, brilliant man who, when sober, captured his children's imagination, teaching them how to embrace life fearlessly. Rose Mary painted and wrote and couldn't stand the responsibility of providing for her family. When the money ran out, the Walls retreated to the dismal West Virginia mining town Rex had tried to escape. As the dysfunction escalated, the children had to fend for themselves, supporting one another as they found the resources and will to leave home. Yet Walls describes her parents with deep affection in this tale of unconditional love in a family that, despite its profound flaws, gave her the fiery determination to carve out a successful life. -- From publisher description.

THE DOCTRINES OF GRACE

REDISCOVERING THE EVANGELICAL GOSPEL

Crossway There is no question that we live in an age of weak theology and casual Christianity. We have substituted intuition for truth, feeling for belief and immediate gratification for enduring hope. Evangelicalism desperately needs to return to the doctrines that once before reformed the world: radical depravity, unconditional election, particular redemption, efficacious grace and persevering grace. James Boice and Philip Ryken not only provide a compelling exposition on these doctrines of grace, but also look briefly at their historical impact. The authors leave no doubt that the church suffers when these foundational truths are neglected and that she must return to a Christianity that is practical-minded, kind-hearted, and most importantly, biblically based.

EDIBLE INSECTS

FUTURE PROSPECTS FOR FOOD AND FEED SECURITY

Food & Agriculture Org Edible insects have always been a part of human diets, but in some societies there remains a degree of disdain and disgust for their consumption. Insects offer a significant opportunity to merge traditional knowledge and modern science to improve human food security worldwide. This publication describes the contribution of insects to food security and examines future prospects for raising insects at a commercial scale to improve food and feed production, diversify diets, and support livelihoods in both developing and developed countries. Edible insects are a promising alternative to the conventional production of meat, either for direct human consumption or for indirect use as feedstock. This publication will boost awareness of the many valuable roles that insects play in sustaining nature and human life, and it will stimulate debate on the expansion of the use of insects as food and feed.

THE PSYCHOLOGICAL WAY/THE SPIRITUAL WAY

Bethany House Pub The true spiritual way is based on the Bible. Rather than using theories of men, the spiritual counselor relies on the truths of God. Through such scriptural means as love, listening, acceptance, mercy, teaching, and encouragement, the spiritual counselor guides an individual in applying biblical principles to his life in order to develop more Christlike thought and behavior patterns. We are not opposed to, nor are we criticizing, the entire field of psychology, but rather the practice of psychotherapy based on ideologies which contradict Scripture. - Preface.

RAISING UP A TESTIMONY

Xulon Press During his first seven years ministering to a suburban Houston congregation (2003-9), Matt Soper wrote a weekly essay commenting on current events, culture and the Christian faith. These essays touched on some of the most dramatic events and pressings issues of that decade, such as the capture of Saddam Hussein, the Abu Ghraib prison debacle, Hurricane Katrina, the fallout from the Danish cartoons of Muhammed, the Enron implosion, sports steroid scandals, the same-sex marriage debate, Barack Obama's historic election, and the 2007-8 recession. They also addressed more prosaic but always challenging issues and events in the life of regular people striving to live faithfully as part of an American congregation of Christians. The essays were written in real time as events unfolded, and they chronicle a preacher attempting to lead a community of Christians in thoughtfully engaging the world through eyes of courageous, rigorous and hopeful faith. Dr. Matt Soper was born and raised in New Orleans, LA. He earned bachelor's degrees in Business from Rhodes College and Biblical Studies from Austin Graduate School of Theology, a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Ministry from Abilene Christian University. He has served churches in New Milford, CT, Los Angeles, CA and Houston, TX. He is currently the Senior Minister of the West Houston Church of Christ. He and his wife, Angela, have two daughters.
