The Navy Yeoman (YN) is an administrative related field and is normally assigned to an administrative office. In today's Navy, the YN carries out a broad range of duties which include office procedures, typing correspondence such as official letters, instructions, notices, plan of the day, fitness and evaluation forms and forms management programs, mail management, security, legal, awards, and records disposal. YN also must demonstrate a working knowledge of pay and allowances, leave procedures, along with maintaining officer and enlisted service records, officer promotions and enlisted advancements. YN must understand the following programs: the officer distribution control report (ODCR) and enlisted distribution verification report (EDVR), casualty assistance calls officer (CACO), social usage and protocol, travel, navy standard integrated personnel system (NSIPS), and individual personnel tempo (ITEMPO). YN also need to have an understanding of working with flag offices.

The Early History of the Monastery of Cluny by Lucy Margaret Smith, first published in 1920, is a rare manuscript, the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world. This book is a reproduction of that original, which has been scanned and cleaned by state-of-the-art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation. Restoration Editors' mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life. Some smudges, annotations or unclear text may still exist, due to permanent damage to the original work. We believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction, allowing a new generation to appreciate it.
