Each chapter of this Book is intended to stand alone so that the reader can refer to the chapter which deals with his or her specific area of interest. Hence some repetition may occur. If the reader wishes to gain further knowledge and deep understanding of the subject, he or she is directed to consult the scholistic work of the authors in the bibliography.

POSTWAR

A HISTORY OF EUROPE SINCE 1945

Penguin Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize • Winner of the Council on Foreign Relations Arthur Ross Book Award • One of the New York Times' Ten Best Books of the Year "Impressive . . . Mr. Judt writes with enormous authority." —The Wall Street Journal "Magisterial . . . It is, without a doubt, the most comprehensive, authoritative, and yes, readable postwar history." —The Boston Globe Almost a decade in the making, this much-anticipated grand history of postwar Europe from one of the world's most esteemed historians and intellectuals is a singular achievement. Postwar is the first modern history that covers all of Europe, both east and west, drawing on research in six languages to sweep readers through thirty-four nations and sixty years of political and cultural change—all in one integrated, enthralling narrative. Both intellectually ambitious and compelling to read, thrilling in its scope and delightful in its small details, Postwar is a rare joy. Judt's book, Ill Fares the Land, republished in 2021 featuring a new preface by bestselling author of Between the World and Me and The Water Dancer, Ta-Nehisi Coates.

U.S. HISTORY

Published by OpenStax College, U.S. History covers the breadth of the chronological history of the United States and also provides the necessary depth to ensure the course is manageable for instructors and students alike. U.S. History is designed to meet the scope and sequence requirements of most courses. The authors introduce key forces and major developments that together form the American experience, with particular attention paid to considering issues of race, class and gender. The text provides a balanced approach to U.S. history, considering the people, events and ideas that have shaped the United States from both the top down (politics, economics, diplomacy) and bottom up (eyewitness accounts, lived experience).

TRAUMA, EXPERIENCE AND NARRATIVE IN EUROPE AFTER WORLD WAR II

Springer Nature

EUROPEAN MEMORIES OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR

Berghahn Books For several decades, a political discourse, which incites exclusion and hatred against those who are perceived as different, has been gaining ground, most notably in affluent and developed countries. Racism is back, and antiracism is no longer accepted as an argument that suffices in itself. Focusing on the growth of racism in large cities and urban areas, this volume represents views by scholars from around the world, who work in different social sciences, on the one hand; on the other, it offers statements by non-practicing academics such as culture brokers, journalists and. The book is conceived in such a way that the contributions of the scientists and the non-academic specialists are grouped around common themes, highlighting existing debates and bringing together widely scattered information. Labour politics, cultural selectionism, separate education for minorities and majorities and other projects point in the direction of more exclusion and racism. Community work, intercultural education and political organization of religious practices explore alternative avenues.

AFRICA AND WORLD WAR II

Cambridge University Press This volume offers a fresh perspective on Africa's central role in the Allied victory in World War II. Its detailed case studies, from all parts of Africa, enable us to understand how African communities sustained the Allied war effort and how they were transformed in the process. Together, the chapters provide a continent-wide perspective.

AMERICA: A CONCISE HISTORY, VOLUME TWO: SINCE 1865

Macmillan With fresh interpretations from two new authors, wholly reconceived themes, and a wealth of cutting-edge scholarship, the Fifth Edition of America: A Concise History is designed to work perfectly with the way you teach the survey today. Building on the book's hallmark strengths—balance, explanatory power, and a brief-yet-comprehensive narrative—as well as its outstanding full-color visuals and built-in primary sources, authors James Henretta, Rebecca Edwards, and Robert Self have shaped America into the ideal brief book for the modern survey course, at a value that can't be beat.

HITLER'S SLAVES

LIFE STORIES OF FORCED LABOURERS IN NAZI-OCCUPIED EUROPE

Berghahn Books During World War II at least 13.5 million people were employed as forced labourers in Germany and across the territories occupied by the German Reich. Most came from Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Moldavia, the Baltic countries, France, Poland and Italy. Among them were 8.4 million civilians working for private companies and public agencies in industry, administration and agriculture. In addition, there were 4.6 million prisoners of war and 1.7 million concentration camp prisoners who were either subjected to forced labour in concentration or similar camps or were 'rented out' or sold by the SS. While there are numerous publications on forced labour in National Socialist Germany during World War II, this publication combines a historical account of events with the biographies and memories of former forced labourers from twenty-seven countries, offering a comparative international perspective.

ONE FOOT IN JAMAICA

A MEMOIR

BPS Books One Foot in Jamaica is a remarkable story of remarkable women as they raise their families -- and sometimes a little bit of hell -- in Jamaica and Boston. When Helen, a Jamaican teenager, loses her parents to malaria in 1880, she is forced to find work on a sugar plantation. There she is raped by the owner and gives birth to a daughter, Eva, setting into motion this captivating story of four generations of women -- the adventures not only of Helen and Eva but also of Eva's daughter Gwen and Gwen's daughter Eleanor, the author of this book. One Foot in Jamaica is a sweeping tale of Jamaica, including plantation life, the 1907 earthquake in Kingston, the country's struggles during the war years, and what it was like to live at the centre of Island society as Gwen marries an up-and-coming Jamaican lawyer, the son of Jamaica's former Treasurer. And it is a unique portrayal of Boston during days of racial prejudice and the Roaring Twenties, with that decade's shocking rise and fall of hemlines and the stock market.

RUIN AND RENEWAL

CIVILIZING EUROPE AFTER WORLD WAR II

Basic Books From an award-winning historian, a panoramic account of Europe after the depravity of World War II. In 1945, Europe lay in ruins. Some fifty million people were dead, and millions more languished in physical and moral disarray. The devastation of World War II was unprecedented in character as well as in scale. Unlike the First World War, the second blurred the line between soldier and civilian, inflicting untold horrors on people from all walks of life. A continent that had previously considered itself the very measure of civilization for the world had turned into its barbaric opposite. Reconstruction, then, was a matter of turning Europe's "civilizing mission" inward. In this magisterial work, Oxford historian Paul Betts describes how this effort found expression in humanitarian relief work, the prosecution of war crimes against humanity, a resurgent Catholic Church, peace campaigns, expanded welfare policies, renewed global engagement and numerous efforts to salvage damaged cultural traditions. Authoritative and sweeping, Ruin and Renewal is essential reading for anyone hoping to understand how Europe was transformed after the destruction of World War II.

THE POPULIST RADICAL RIGHT

A READER

Routledge The populist radical right is one of the most studied political phenomena in the social sciences, counting hundreds of books and thousands of articles. This is the first reader to bring together the most seminal articles and book chapters on the contemporary populist radical right in western democracies. It has a broad regional and topical focus and includes work that has made an original theoretical contribution to the field, which make them less time-specific. The reader is organized in six thematic sections: (1) ideology and issues; (2) parties, organizations, and subcultures; (3) leaders, members, and voters; (4) causes; (5) consequences; and (6) responses. Each section features a short introduction by the editor, which introduces and ties together the selected pieces and provides discussion questions and suggestions for further readings. The reader is ended with a conclusion in which the editor reflects on the future of the populist radical right in light of (more) recent political developments – most notably the Greek economic crisis and the refugee crisis – and suggest avenues for future research.

A WORLD WAR II C-47 AIRBORNE TROOP CARRIER PILOT REMEMBERS

CreateSpace Merriam Press Aviation History 4. First Edition (2014). Inducted in 1942, Johnson went through pilot training, followed by airborne operations flight training with the 27th Troop Carrier Squadron, 10th Troop Carrier Group. Assignment to the 49th Troop Carrier Squadron, 313th Troop Carrier Wing, for training in Sicily in late 1943 came next. Assigned to the 36th Troop Carrier Squadron, 316th Troop Carrier Group, in November 1943, for training for the Normandy D-Day invasion, followed by support for the invasion and Allied advance across Europe during the summer of 1944. Also during this period, he trained for Operation Market Garden, as part of the armada that dropped the 82nd Airborne Division. His C-47 was shot down during this mission and he became a POW. In addition to detailing his life as a POW, from capture and interrogation to life in Stalag Luft 1A, through liberation, Johnson includes details of what it was like back home for his family, particularly after he was listed as Missing in Action after being shot down, including his parents' efforts at trying to get more details from politicians, the Army and members of his unit in England. A detailed personal account by a C-47 pilot who flew Un-Armed, Un-Armored and Un-Escorted over the skies of Europe, delivering men and materiel where it was needed to defeat the enemy. 35 photos and documents Contents Introduction Prelude: 18 September 1944 Chapter 1: The Beginning:

THE AMERICAN YAWP

A MASSIVELY COLLABORATIVE OPEN U.S. HISTORY TEXTBOOK, VOL. 1: TO 1877

Stanford University Press "I too am not a bit tamed—I too am untranslatable / I sound my barbaric yawp over the roofs of the world."—Walt Whitman, "Song of Myself," Leaves of Grass The American Yawp is a free, online, collaboratively built American history textbook. Over 300 historians joined together to create the book they wanted for their own students—an accessible, synthetic narrative that reflects the best of recent historical scholarship and provides a jumping-off point for discussions in the U.S. history classroom and beyond. Long before Whitman and long after, Americans have sung something collectively amid the deafening roar of their many individual voices. The Yawp highlights the dynamism and conflict inherent in the history of the United States, while also looking for the common threads that help us make sense of the past. Without losing sight of politics and power, The American Yawp incorporates transnational perspectives, integrates diverse voices, recovers narratives of resistance, and explores the complex process of cultural creation. It looks for America in crowded slave cabins, bustling markets, congested tenements, and marbled halls. It navigates between maternity wards, prisons, streets, bars, and boardrooms. The fully peer-reviewed edition of The American Yawp will be available in two print volumes designed for the U.S. history survey. Volume I begins with the indigenous people who called the Americas home before chronicling the collision of Native Americans, Europeans, and Africans. The American Yawp traces the development of colonial society in the context of the larger Atlantic World and investigates the origins and ruptures of slavery, the American Revolution, and the new nation's development and rebirth through the Civil War and Reconstruction. Rather than asserting a fixed narrative of American progress, The American Yawp gives students a starting point for asking their own questions about how the past informs the problems and opportunities that we confront today.

A HISTORY OF WESTERN SOCIETY, COMBINED VOLUME

Macmillan Now from Bedford/St. Martin's, A History of Western Society is one of the most successful textbooks available because it captures students' interest in the everyday life of the past and ties social history to the broad sweep of politics and culture. The tenth edition has been thoroughly revised to strengthen the text's readability, heighten its attention to daily life, and incorporate the insights of new scholarship, including an enhanced treatment of European exploration and a thoroughly revised post-1945 section. With a dynamic new design, new special features, and a completely revised and robust companion reader, this major revision makes the past memorable and accessible for a new generation of students and instructors.

THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD WAR II

A DOCUMENTARY READER

John Wiley & Sons This reader brings together 78 primary documents that capture the diversity of experiences of Americans who lived through World War II, from presidents and generals to war workers and GIs. Illustrates the political, diplomatic and military history of the conflict, including well-known documents, such as the Atlantic Charter and Franklin Roosevelt's Congressional address requesting a declaration of war against Japan. Highlights the far-reaching economic, social and cultural changes caused by the war, such as the struggles to find day care for the children of women war workers, and the experiences returning veterans. Includes an introduction, document headnotes and questions at the end of each chapter designed to encourage students to engage with the material critically.

A HISTORY OF WORLD SOCIETIES

COMBINED (VOLUMES I & II)

Bedford/St. Martin's With unparalleled coverage of social history, A History of World Societies explores the lives of peoples of the world within a political framework. The text is known for its readability, integration of strong scholarship, and new historical interpretations. A range of technology resources—including Houghton Mifflin's Eduspace online learning tool, premium Blackboard and WebCT content, and materials designed for student success—gives A History of World Societies one of the strongest technology programs on the market. Twentieth-century world and African history scholar Roger Beck joins the author team for the Seventh Edition. In addition to completely revising the last four chapters, Dr. Beck contributes his scholarly expertise throughout the text. The entire author team has worked to increase coverage of non-western topics in order to achieve a more balanced, global approach to world history. Several new features, as well as significant structural and content changes, round out this very thorough revision. New! This edition features the addition of co-author Roger Beck. An expert in African and twentieth-century world history, Beck incorporates compelling new scholarship, particularly in chapters 30-34, with significant contributions to African history coverage throughout the text. A well-respected scholar in the world history community, Beck helps to ensure that equal weight is given to the stories of all the peoples of the world. New! Extensive content changes have been made to this edition, including new or expanded material on Islamic cultural development; Japanese Society between 800 and 1400, with an emphasis on the experience of women; "The Dream of Red Mansions," an important work of Chinese literature; the Arab-Israeli conflict; and the challenges of modern African nations. In addition, coverage of 19th and 20th-century Japan includes more material on the opening of Japan under Perry and protests during Meiji Restoration (Chapter 25), Japan's colonial empire and its aggression against China (Chapter 28), and World War II. New! Increased comparative coverage focuses on Chinese paper and Egyptian papyrus, the Qur'an and Jewish and Christian scriptures, Muslim madrasa schools and European universities, Japanese samurai and European knights, and non-violent protest methods used by Gandhi and civil rights protesters in the United States. New! Coverage of some of the most current topics in world history includes Vladimir Putin's leadership and Russia's war with Chechnya; Latin America's economy and the formation of the South American Community; Mbeki's presidency in South Africa and religious strife in Nigeria; terrorism, including the 2004 Madrid train bombings and the nuclear capabilities of various countries; the new Pope and the rise of religious fundamentalism; and global healthcare issues. New! Extensive structural changes allow for a more global presentation of history, while reducing the text's overall length and number of chapters from 36 to 34. Structural changes include new Chapter 1, "Early Civilizations," which combines Chapters 1 and 2 from the previous edition, as well as new Chapter 23, "The Triumph of Nationalism in Europe, 1815-1914," which combines Chapters 24 and 25. New! A comparative timeline in the front of the book features a perforated edge so that students can post or carry it with them to class. This timeline also ties in with an online interactive timeline. New! More than 1/3 of the text's "Individuals in Society" biography features are new, including Amda Siyon, a ruler of the Solomonic dynasty and Tan Yunxian, a Chinese female doctor. Among the new "Listening to the Past" features, which invite students to evaluate primary sources as an historian would, are Diderot's condemnation of European Colonialism and a Buddhist priest's account of the Korea campaign. New! Three new "Global Trade" essays, which make connections between various regions of the world through important products and commodities, explore the trade of silk, indigo, and arms. New! Eduspace for History is an online learning tool that pairs the widely recognized resources of Blackboard? with quality content from Houghton Mifflin. Developed to meet the unique needs of history curricula, Eduspace for History offers access to primary sources, interactive maps, and supplemental study materials, as well as writing tips and tutorials (and, in qualified adoption situations, the anti-plagiarism resources of MyDropBox).

DANCE OF THE FURIES

EUROPE AND THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR I

Belknap Press Looking beyond diplomats and generals, Neiberg shows that neither nationalist passions nor desires for revenge took Europe to war in 1914. Dance of the Furies gives voice to a generation who suddenly found themselves compelled to participate in a ghastly, protracted orgy of violence they never imagined would come to pass.

GLOBAL POLITICS

A NEW INTRODUCTION

Routledge The third edition of Global Politics: A New Introduction continues to provide a completely original way of teaching and learning about world politics. The book engages directly with the issues in global politics that students are most interested in, helping them to understand the key questions and theories and also to develop a critical and inquiring perspective. Completely revised and updated throughout, the third edition offers up-to-date examples engaging with the latest developments in global politics, including the Syrian war and the refugee crisis, fossil fuel divestment, racism and Black Lives Matter, citizen journalism, populism, and drone warfare. Global Politics examines the most significant issues in global politics – from war, peacebuilding, terrorism, security, violence, nationalism and authority to poverty, development, postcolonialism, human rights, gender, inequality, ethnicity and what we can do to change the world; offers chapters written to a common structure, which is ideal for teaching and learning, and features a key question, an illustrative example, general responses and broader issues; integrates theory and practice throughout the text, by presenting theoretical ideas and concepts in conjunction with a global range of historical and contemporary case studies. Drawing on theoretical perspectives from a broad range of disciplines, including international relations, political theory, postcolonial studies, sociology, geography, peace studies and development, this innovative textbook is essential reading for all students of global politics and international relations.

A HISTORY OF WORLD SOCIETIES VOLUME C: 1775 TO THE PRESENT

ARTILLERY FLYERS AT WAR

A HISTORY OF THE 664, 665, AND 666 'AIR OBSERVATION POST' SQUADRONS OF THE ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE

Merriam Press Military Monograph 82. Second Edition (January 2012). The first and only history of the Royal Canadian Air Force's little-known "Air Observation Post" squadrons: 664, 665, and 666 (AOP) Squadrons, from their creation in 1944 during World War II. Includes coverage of the Auster aircraft they flew, operational training, and their combat history. With the end of the war, these squadrons were disbanded. An AOP-trained pilot holding the rank of Major in the Royal Regiment of Canadian Artillery-not airforce personnel-commanded each of the three RCAF AOP squadrons. Every pilot assigned to duty in the three squadrons-664 (AOP), 665 (AOP) and 666 (AOP)-was a Canadian artillery officer (or, in a few instances, a British artillery officer) whose previous employment had been in Field, Medium, or Light Anti-Aircraft regiments, serving as a Gun Position Officer (GPO) or Forward Observation Officer (FOO), tasked with laying and firing artillery guns in support of Canadian or Allied fighting units, most often for the Infantry. The author's father a member of 665 (AOP) Squadron. Pursuing information about Canada's AOP squadrons became an obsession while hunting for the day-to-day written records and flight logs and photographs of this obscure group of wartime flyers, virtually all of the aircrew having been seconded from His Majesty's Royal Regiment of Canadian Artillery, and all of its riggers, fitters and instrumentation mechanics having previously serviced Lancasters, Halifaxes, Hurricanes and Spitfires while wearing the blue of the Royal Canadian Air Force. In time, a rich harvest of evidence surfaced, and is now presented in this work. Contents: Preface; Chapter 1: Wormhout Advanced Landing Ground, Dunkirk, France. Monday, May 7, 1945; Chapter 2: The Beginning of a Modern Air Observation Force; Chapter 3: The Evolution of Purpose-Built Aircraft; Chapter 4: The Continuing Development of D Flight; Chapter 5: A Young Canadian, Off to War; Chapter 6: The Founding Father of the Canadian AOP; Chapter 7: Artillery Officers to 22 EFTS; Chapter 8: Mastering the Auster; Chapter 9: Operational Training for War; Chapter 10: New Formations; Chapter 11: Directing Shoots, with Deadly Effect; Chapter 12: Aircraft Type Conversion; Chapter 13: 665 (AOP) Squadron, RCAF; Chapter 14: AOP Finishing School; Chapter 15: Wings; Chapter 16: Creating AOP Observers; Chapter 17: Forming a Flying Crew; Chapter 18: Deployment; Chapter 19: 'Dicing About' Over Holland; Chapter 20: Off to War; Chapter 21: 666 (AOP) Squadron, RCAF; Chapter 22: 'Hello, Niner-Six!'; Chapter 23: The Last Canadian Action in Europe; Chapter 24: Post-War AOP Duties; Chapter 25: Flying The Red Ensign, At Allied Headquarters; Chapter 26:

Training To Fly On Post-War Taskings; Chapter 27: Intelligence Sorties In Germany; Chapter 28: 'We're Here, Because We're Here, Because...'; Chapter 29: Final Orders; Epilogue; Glossary of Terms; Appendix 1: Codes for Flight Training Procedures; Appendix 2: Pilot's Checklist, Auster Mk. IV and V Aircraft; Appendix 3: Nominal Roll for Canadian Air Observation Post Squadrons; Appendix 4: Nominal Roll of All British and Commonwealth Air Observation Post Pilots Trained for World War II; Bibliography. 90 photos/illustrations; 5 documents; 3 maps.

LE HAVRE: A RIVETING EXPOSE FOR OUR WORLD TODAY

THE FRENCH REISISTANCE WORLD WAR II - A HISTORICAL WAR ROMANCE NOVEL

CreateSpace Merriam Press Historical Fiction HF10 (First Edition, 2015). The late Pierre Gerard's historical war romance, "Le Havre," poignantly portrays the atrocities of war, and what happens when individuals and nations either ignore, unite with or combat those whose deliberate and declared intent is to intimidate, persecute, dominate and annihilate other people and countries of the world. We learn about the boundless bravery that was France's salvation during those terrifying, turbulent years. We experience patriotism and discover the ultimate meaning of devotion to one's country through ingenuity and self-sacrifice. We taste the unleashed, incomprehensible evil that man is capable of and the horrific anguish and extermination the Nazis successfully executed against Jews, dissidents, and those they deemed different and inferior, and therefore, unworthy of life. We go through the early warning signs of tyranny and easily get engrossed in the intensity and importance of defending oneself, one's culture and one's homeland against radical, racist and immoral intruders. We are reminded that the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual carnage of World War II continues to haunt and hound us even today. And so, "Le Havre" is significant not just for France and Europe during World War II, as the ramifications of this historical novel and era also apply to present and future civilizations, all free world nations, and the planet. With this in mind, it is my hope that the reader be awakened and inspired by the passion and positive activism of The French Resistance. Let this work guide mankind in the current battle against terrorism to preserve justice, morality, and independence for all, and respect for our Creator and His creations. PACIFIC WAR REMEMBERED

AN ORAL HISTORY COLLECTION

Naval Institute Press In this remarkable oral history collection, thirty-three participants in the turbulent epic that began with the day of infamy at Pearl Harbor and ended with the signing of the surrender documents in Tokyo Harbor tell their stories. Their remembrances of heartbreak, frustration, heroism, hope, and triumph were collected over a period of twenty-five years by John T. Mason. Their recollections reveal perspectives and facts not included in traditional works of history. Each selection, introduced with a preface that places it in the context of the Pacific War, takes the reader behind the scenes to present the personal, untold stories of naval history. Included are Admiral William S. Sullivan's account of the problems involved in clearing Manila Harbor of some five hundred wrecked vessels left by the departing Japanese and Admiral Thomas C. Kinkaid's description of the communications breakdown at the Battle of Leyte Gulf. There are also the very personal recollections of humor and horror told by the unknown actors in the war: the hospital corpsman, the coxswain, and the machinist's mate. Originally published in 1986, this volume is an unusual and lasting tribute to the ingenuity and teamwork demonstrated by America's forces in the Pacific as well as a celebration of the human spirit
