Assessment and Intervention Issues Across the Life Span

Psychology Press This volume evolved from the second life span development conference held at Southern Illinois University entitled "Assessment and Intervention Across the Lifespan." Providing an overview and consideration of important directions for research in areas of assessment and intervention across the lifespan, the presentations covered a variety of topic areas including social ecology, cultural diversity, attitudes about aging, as well as attention, visual, and linguistic skills. This volume consists of chapters based on the conference presentations as well as additional chapters by experts in related specialty areas discussing attachment theory, learning disabilities, and phonological processing. The second conference and volume continue the work of the first conference and its associated earlier volume. The chapters cover important interactions between assessment and intervention for each major developmental period; several emphasize the importance of early assessment and intervention. A common theme found throughout is the critical connection between basic research and practice. The editors hope this book will prove useful not only to researchers, but also to practitioners in related disciplines working with individuals of all ages.

Borish's Clinical Refraction - E-Book

Elsevier Health Sciences Now updated and expanded to cover the latest technologies, this full-color text on clinical refraction uses an easy-to-read format to give optometry students and practitioners all the important information they need. Also covers a wide range of other aspects of the eye exam, including anterior and posterior segment evaluations, contact lens, ocular pharmacology, and visual field analysis. Four new chapters cover wavefront-guided refraction, optical correction with refractive surgeries, prosthetic devices, and patients with ocular pathology. Offer precise, step-by-step how-to's for performing all of the most effective refractive techniques. Presents individualized refractive approaches for the full range of patients, including special patient populations. Contributors are internationally recognized, leading authorities in the field. New full-color design with full-color images throughout. Completely updated and expanded to include current technologies. A new chapter on Optical Correction with Refractive Surgeries, including keratoplasty, traditional refractive surgeries (e.g. LASIK and PRK), crystalline lens extraction with and without pseudophakia, the new presbyopic surgery, etc. A new chapter on Wavefront Guided Refraction provides information on the advantages and limitations the Hartmann-Shack Method for objective refraction plus aberrometry and the refraction and the use of in the correction of the eye with spectacles, contact lenses, and refractive surgery. A new chapter on Patients with Ocular Pathology reflects the most current knowledge of patients with ocular pathologies. Provides information on Optical Correction with Prosthetic Devices, including corneal onlays, stromal implants, phakic intraocular lenses, etc. Includes new chapters and/or discussions on such topics as: Aberrations of the Eye, Refractive Consequences of Eye Pathology, Diagnosis and Treatment of Dry Eye, Diagnosis of Pathology of the Anterior Segment, Diagnosis of Glaucoma, and Diagnosis of Pathology of the Posterior Segment. Visual Acuity chapter expanded to include the effect of refractive error on visual acuity and statistics on how much of a change in visual acuity is significant. Objective Refraction, Corneal Topography, and Visual Field Analysis chapters include the addition of new electro-optical and computer techniques and equipment. Chapters on Multifocal Spectacle Lenses and Contact Lenses now cover newer progressive addition lenses and contact lenses that are now on the market. Electrodiagnosis chapter revised to take a more clinical approach.

Manual Ambulantes Operieren

Techniken, perioperative Verfahren und Management

Walter de Gruyter GmbH & Co KG Um unnötige stationäre Liegezeiten und zunehmend auch den Kontakt mit resistenten Krankenhauskeimen zu vermeiden, werden mit steigender Tendenz ambulante Operationen durchgeführt. Das praxisorientierte Handbuch stellt die präoperativen Voraussetzungen und Maßnahmen sowie die jeweils fachbezogenen Operationsmethoden und Nachbehandlungen der am häufigsten durchgeführten ambulanten Eingriffe vor. Das Spektrum reicht von der Allgemein Chirurgie über die Kinderchirurgie und weiteren spezialisierten chirurgischen Fachgebieten bis hin zu anderen eigenständigen operativen Fachdisziplinen wie HNO und Urologie. Darüber hinaus bezieht die Expertise der in den jeweiligen Fachbereichen jahrelang tätigen Autoren die für den ambulanten operativen Bereich spezifischen Strukturproblematiken, die sich aus Praxisgegebenheiten wie der technischen Ausstattung ergeben, sowie die Fragen der Qualitätssicherung und deren Bedeutung gerade bei der Einhaltung von Hygienestandards mit ein. Abgerundet durch ökonomische Aspekte der ambulanten Chirurgie sowie Tipps zum Aufbau einer ambulanten chirurgischen Praxisklinik bzw. einer ambulanten OP-Einheit bietet das Buch sowohl den niedergelassenen als auch den in der Klinik ambulant chirurgisch bzw. operativ tätigen Fachärzten ein praktisches und aktuelles 1x1 des ambulanten Operierens. Darüber hinaus eignet sich das vorliegende Werk nichtoperativ tätigen Fach- und Allgemeinärzten sowie interessierten Studenten die Grundzüge und die Philosophie des ambulanten Operierens anschaulich zu vermitteln und eventuelle Vorbehalte abzubauen.

Euro-Barometer 37.0

Awareness and Importance of Maastricht and the Future of the European Community, March-April 1992

This round of Euro-Barometer surveys investigated the level of public support for the European Community (EC) and assessed attitudes toward European integration. Respondents were asked how well informed they felt about the EC, how supportive they were of efforts being made to unify Western Europe, whether their country had benefited from being an EC member, and how interested they were personally in EC matters. Other queries focused on respondent reaction to the European flag, the feeling of being a citizen of Europe both now and in the future, opinions relating to the speed of European unification, impressions of the work of the European Commission, and how well a list of statements corresponded to the respondent's hopes for the future of the EC. Respondents also judged which areas of policy should be decided by national governments and which by a central EC structure, and expressed their reactions to the Common Agricultural Policy, their expectations for the Single European Market and whether it should contain a social dimension, and their attitudes about the role and importance of the European Parliament. A number of questions focused specifically on the meeting and treaty produced in the Dutch town of Maastricht in December 1991. Respondents were queried about their knowledge of the gathering and its possible effects on the EC, on their own countries, and on their personal lives. Opinions were also sought on the desirability and positive and negative effects of certain countries joining the EC, and what the rights of citizens of other member countries should be when residing in the respondent's nation. Attitudes toward immigrants from nonmember countries were elicited as well. A set of questions focused on environmental problems, ecological concerns, and the priority assigned to economic development when assessing these issues. Responden ...
