laid by Rigby Star Guided for successful guided reading lessons at KS2. The Nest on the Beach Nelson Thornes The accurately presented setting of this narrative gives reason for the agitation experienced by a sea bird when its nesting environment is threatened. Understanding the effect of setting is an essential feature of narrative texts. Fearful and Foolish Rigby The Gizmo's Party Rigby Educational Publishers Geared towards the NLS Searchlights model, Rigby Star is designed for guided reading at Key Stage 1. The programme is carefully structured to promote sharing and interaction. This pack contains six copies of a challenging story book designed for high-flying students in Year 2. Rigby Star Heinemann Educational Publishers The Lion and the Rabbit Nelson Thornes A Lion has caught a rabbit to eat, but now he sees a deer and wants to eat that. Kitty Cat Nelson Thornes This is the first of several stories about a mischievous little cat and an older grumpy cat called Fat Cat. The Floppy Infant Cambridge University Press The second edition of The Floppy Infant is devoted to the recognition and diagnosis of the floppy infant syndrome. It includes a review of some of the more important causes and provides a practical approach to the assessment and management such children require. The text of the first edition has been completely revised, but the emphasis has not changed: it remains an immensely practical and up-to-date handbook for the clinician. Yo-Yo a Go Go Rigby Educational Publishers This story is about a school full of children who are mad about yo-yos. Some teachers won't let them play, but Mr. Dodd decides to have a yo-yo topic week, with surprising results. Illustrated by Charlotte Hard The Psychology of Education Routledge Written in an accessible and engaging style, this second edition of The Psychology of Education addresses key concepts from psychology which relate to education. Throughout the text the author team emphasise an evidence-based approach, providing practical suggestions to improve learning outcomes, while fictional case studies are used in this new edition to provide students with a sense of what psychological issues can look like in the classroom. Activities around these case studies give students the chance to think about how to apply their theoretical knowledge to these real-world contexts. 'Key implications' are drawn out at appropriate points, and throughout the book students are provided with strategies for interrogating evidence. Key terms are glossed throughout the book and chapters are summarised and followed by suggestions for further reading. A chapter on Learning interactions and social worlds is new to this edition. The following chapters have all been extensively updated: Learning Assessment Individual differences and achievement Student engagement and motivation The educational context Society and culture Language Literacy Inclusive education and special educational needs Behaviour problems Dealing with behaviour problems. This book is essential reading for undergraduate students of Education Studies and Psychology as well as trainee teachers on BA, BEd and PGCE courses. It will also be of use to postgraduates training to be educational psychologists. Down by the Sea Nelson Thornes Meg and Gran are so engrossed by what they can see in the rock pools, that they do not notice an approaching wave. Although not a dangerous situation, it is only Gran's quick thinking that keeps Meg dry. Look Out for Bingo Nelson Thornes Designed to be used by children in their first six months of school PM Starters One and Two A Hot Surprise Rigby Educational Publishers Mrs. Clark takes in a stray cat only to discover that he likes to steal her food. She makes a very hot chilli to teach Tom a lesson he won't forget.
