Modernization means initiating an intelligent process in a democratic society in order to adapt the 'urban cultural landscape' to the needs of the future. Netzstadt is the title of a text book on designing cities. It addresses students and practitioners in the fields of city planning and city construction, in architecture, engineering and the natural sciences and the social sciences and economics"--Back cover. A Very Civil War The Swiss Sonderbund War Of 1847 Westview Press A Very Civil War is the first complete account of the important but much neglected story of Switzerland's civil war of 1847. Fought over issues similar to those of the American Civil War, the comparative "civility" of the Swiss war—there were fewer than one hundred casualties—is remarkable. Indeed, a war that might have destroyed Swiss union instead contributed to a sense of cohesion and established a firm foundation for modern Swiss society. Contexts Birkhauser Architecture Challenging European cultural conventions, the work of Swiss-Bolivian artist Carmen Perrin is infused with fine undertones and references to her Latin American roots. In her preference for industrial mass-produced materials she transposes electric wire, cables and building materials into a subtle, ambiguous imagery and sculptures which activate the surrounding space. This publication presents 15 of her most important art-in-architecture interventions: in the Zurich headquarters of the Swiss National Bank, the Dock Midfield Terminal of Zurich-Kloten Airport, Lucerne s Gynaecological Hospital and further projects in France, Brazil, USA (New York) and Switzerland. Carmen Perrin, born in Bolivia in 1953, emigrated to Switzerland in 1960. She now lives in France and teaches at Geneva s Ecole Superieure des Beaux-Arts. Das Werk der Schweizer Kunstlerin (*1953) hinterfragt die kulturellen Konventionen Europas und ist von feinen Untertönen durchzogen, die auf ihre lateinamerikanische Herkunft verweisen. Perrin verwendet mit Vorliebe industriell gefertigte Materialien und überführt sie in eine vieldeutige Bildsprache. Ihre skulpturalen Setzungen aktivieren den Umraum. Die vorliegende Monografie stellt 15 der wichtigsten Kunst-am-Bau-Projekte Carmen Perrins vor: Interventionen in der Frauenklinik in Luzern, im Zürcher Sitz der Schweizer Nationalbank und im neuen Flughafenterminal Dock Midfield in Zurich-Kloten

By 1986, negotiations involved senior government officials, intelligence agents, and the African National Congress. For the next four years, they assembled in places such as a gamepark lodge, the Palace Hotel in Lucerne, Switzerland, a fishing hideaway, and even in a hospital room. All the while, De Klerk's campaign assured white constituents nothing would change. Sparks shows how the key players, who began with little reason to trust one another, developed friendships which would later play a crucial role in South Africa's struggle to end apartheid. "A gripping, fast-paced, authoritative account of the long and mostly secret negotiations that brought South Africa's bitter conflict to its near-miraculous end. Sparks's description of these talks sometimes brings a lump to one's throat. He shows how the participants' deep mutual suspicion was gradually replaced by excitement at the prospect of making a momentous agreement—and also by the dawning realization that the people on the other side were human beings, perhaps even decent human beings."—Adam Hochschild, New York Times Book Review "A splendid and original history. . . . Sparks's skillful weaving of myriad strands—Mandela's secret sessions with the committee, the clandestine talks in England between the African National Congress and the government, the back-channel communications between Mandela and the A.N.C. in exile, the trepidation of Botha and the apparent transformation of his successor, De Klerk—possesses the drama and intrigue of a diplomatic whodunit."—Richard Stengel, Time "Sparks offers many reasons for hope, but the most profound of them is the story this book tells."—Jacob Weisberg, Washington Post "The most riveting of the many [accounts] that have been published about the end of apartheid."—The Economist Picasso, the Ludwig Collection Paintings, Drawings, Sculptures, Ceramics, Prints Prestel Pub Free and Swiss The Story of Switzerland Ai Weiwei Nai Uitgevers Pub Ai Weiwei's ceramics are showcased in this exhibition catalogue. Some of the ceramics are readymades, e.g. a Han Dynasty urn which the artist has decorated with the Coca-Cola logo. Lavishly illustrated with Repton's own watercolours, the notorious Red Book manuscripts were used to suggest improvements to family estates all over England, Scotland and Wales. Through detailed analysis of Repton's working practices, André Rogger argues that the landscape gardener's main artistic achievement is in the text-and-image concept of his Red Books, rather than in his grounds as finally executed. He presents the Red Books as artefacts in their own right, examining their creative potential as an entirely new genre of landscape appraisal. Assembling a comprehensive and descriptive catalogue of 123 original volumes, Landscapes of Taste: The Art of Humphry Repton's Red Books guides the reader through a fascinating part of the rich texture and legacy of Georgian landscape aesthetics. Road & Track Selected Stories Penguin UK Lawrence was one of the great short story writers of the 20th century.
