Flying Magazine Flying Magazine Flying Magazine Burt Rutan's Race to Space The Magician of Mojave and His Flying Innovations Zenith Press The author of SpaceShipOne chronicles the significant achievements of the Ansari X Prize-winning aerospace innovator, offering insight into his pioneering vision for enabling space exploration and the processes of his history-making designs, including Voyager and SpaceShipTwo. The Propeller under the Bed A Personal History of Homebuilt Aircraft University of Washington Press *On July 25, 2010, Arnold Ebnetter flew across the country in a plane he designed and built himself, setting an aviation world record for aircraft of its class. He was eighty-two at the time and the flight represented the culmination of a dream he'd cultivated since his childhood in the 1930s. Eileen Bjorkman — herself a pilot and aeronautical engineer — frames her father's journey from teenage airplane enthusiast to Air Force pilot and Boeing engineer in the context of the rise, near extermination, and ongoing interest in homebuilt aircraft in the United States. She gives us a glimpse into life growing up in a "flying family" with two pilots for parents, a family plane named Charlie, and quite literally, a propeller under her parents' bed. From early airplane designs serialized in magazines to the annual Oshkosh Fly-in where you can see experimental aircraft on display, Bjorkman offers a personal take on the history of building something in your garage that you can actually (and legally) fly as well as how the homebuilt aircraft movement has contributed to aviation and innovation in America. To promote a new Virgin Airlines route, he became the first man to water ski behind a blimp. His Virgin Galactic venture will soon offer ordinary people the opportunity to experience spaceflight aboard the first commercial spaceliner, SpaceShipTwo. In Reach for the Skies, Branson examines the history of aviation over the last two hundred years, putting the spotlight on trailblazers such as: *Tony Jannus, who made the first ever commercial flight over Tampa Bay, Florida, in 1914. *Leo Valentin, the "bird man" who jumped from 9,000 feet wearing a pair of wooden wings in the 1950s. *Steve Fossett, who broke 130 world records in planes, balloons, and airships. The pioneers of flight—not just the world-famous Wright Brothers, but also lesser known visionaries and dreamers—made it possible for any of us with the desire and the commitment to reach for the skies ourselves.* Flying Flying Magazine The Complete Guide to Rutan Aircraft Presents the events that led up to Voyager's flight, details on the flight itself, and complete Voyager specifications. Popular Mechanics *Popular Mechanics inspires, instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world. The Technology Edge Opportunities for America in World Competition Simon & Schuster *Rejecting the "limits to growth" philosophy common to the 1970s, O'Neill points out that technological advances have historically created wealth for those societies with the foresight to develop them. He examines in detail six vast new markets that, if aggressively pursued, could sustain high levels of economic growth for the United States for many decades -- microengineering, robotic reproduction, genetic hardware, magnetic flight, private aircraft flight and space manufacturing. Suggests that to conquer these markets long-term corporate growth and not short-term profits must be stressed, the adversarial relationship between labor and management must be superseded by cooperation, and venture capital investment must be encouraged. One is a light romantic madcap comedy, and the other is a dark psycho-sexual thriller. Meet a runaway host mother about to deliver a billionaire baby, a puritanical General with a dark secret, a secretary who hunts rapists, a phony preacher with a deadly surprise in his Bible, a ruthless but naive tabloid reporter looking for an expose, a socialite teenager who operates a lurid fetish website, and a nice middle-aged couple out tempting themselves with a taste of the swinging fast life.
